

The New FAA Aviation Medical Changes (CACI)

In the Spring of 2013, the FAA changed medical certification criteria for certain medical conditions that required a special issuance. Under the Conditions the AME Can Issue (CACI), the AME can process the medical application. Dr. Robert Lewis, FAA designated Senior AME and FAASafetyTeam Rep, will be discussing these new parameters and giving advice on how to handle these certain medical conditions that previously required a special issuance.

Directions: Look for Hangar 5 East of the tower.
